Also, Zee Television and Star Television networks applied for the declaration in writing that they would abide by the said Act and court orders. Interestingly, the Minister's draft did not include the important issue relating to spectrum pricing. In our view, the recommendations made by TRAI in this regard were contrary to the decision of the Council of Ministers that DoT shall discuss the issue of spectrum pricing with the Ministry of Finance along with the issue of incentive for efficient use of spectrum as well as disincentive for suboptimal usages.
