Public perceptions of Freemasonry: Brann the Iconoclast

Bradley-Martin's sartorial kings and pseudo-queens have strutted their brief hour on the stage, disappearing at daybreak like foul night-birds or an unclean dream have come and gone like the rank eructation of some crapulous Sodom. The first issue of the monthly appeared about August 1 and was funded in part by Texas newspaperman Charles A. He was forced to walk to the city jail but later escorted home by friends Waco Daily Telephone, 1898.
