While such corporations have never been strong supporters of organized labor, it is interesting to note their unity in this matter. An announcement was made by James Callaghan in September that an expected general election was not to be called, instead it was chosen to hold it the following year to allow the economy to stabilise. The new collective agreement guarantees the rights of all striking employees to return to their jobs.

The Screen Actors Guild and the Commercials Strike of 1978

But whether those who stay in Ontario will stay in Sudbury is a different matter. The study found that performing artists, though widely eligible, did not generally participate in government programs designed to aid the unemployed, such as the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act CETA programs.

The joint strike by the Screen Actors Guild SAG and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists AFTRA was in many ways a first. The session fee was increased approximately 15 percent to 250 dollars, and other increases accompanied it. About 140,000 people took part in the demonstration in London.
