ARTH101: Art Appreciation

Throughout the course, we will address the following questions: How have unconventional materials impacted art practices in China? For students interested in graduate study in art history, it is advantageous to have performed well in a graduate seminar while completing the BA. Readings and screenings are assigned.

Course: Art History: Critical and Contextual Studies AS/A Level

Most of the pieces of art that you see have a personal history behind them, and while the average eye only appreciates the aesthetic of that piece of art, an art student would take time to see the main essence of it. Students should consult their BA advisor regarding all details, including optimal length, of the BA Paper.

AP Art History Course

This studio course will offer an unmediated encounter with drawing techniques: we will test different supports-from parchment to screen, and especially paper-and different tools-natural chalks, antique and modern inks, industrial pencils, as well as keyboards and tablets-in order to understand the interaction, throughout history, between materials and design practice. We will pay particular attention to the historical specificity of issues surrounding marriage, love, desire, loss, and transgression.
