A Little Tiger in the Chinese Night: An Autobiography in Art by Song Nan Zhang

Read this book a few years ago now after meeting Tony and him giving me a copy to which he then signed : I remember there was quite a few of us who didn't put this book down until we had read it from cover to cover which was a good sign Haha! This is an exceptional, poetic, beautifully-written book. The book depicts the life of an average child in China, and also the horrors of that era. And, that picture books may not always be aimed at the youngest of children.
