At other times, that role is played by the National Security Adviser as with Brzezinski in the Carter administration, or the Vice President and Secretary of Defense under George W. Subsequently, even with the support of the Pentagon and the White House, Reagan still had to placate the Zionist lobby and Israel although Congressional approval was eventually forthcoming. A network of zealous university students and supporters expand upon these activities by depicting Israel in the most favorable light and Arabs in the most negative terms throughout the nation.

Conversely, the media do not accord Arab, particularly Palestinian, victims of terrorism the same extensive coverage that is given to the death of Israeli children. After the 11 September attacks, some Israeli supporters sought to take advantage of the prevalent atmosphere of hysteria by launching slur campaigns against the academic integrity of these centers and specific academics.
