He covers the geography, geology, and history of the area, and devotes a full chapter to its development by pioneer Paul McCollister. Carving The Future has created opportunities for many of those kids to own gear.

Renowned Wildlife Artists Find Their Calling in Jackson Hole

Kelly Halpin is many things, a professional endurance athlete, a gifted artist, and, quite possibly, a crazy person. He ended up becoming a full-blown shredder who averaged three to four days a week on snow by the end of the season. The history of the area is fascinating, but the interviews with the locals really bring this book to life.

The brainchild of local writer and photographer and environmental crusader, David Gonzales, the Picnic involves biking from Jackson to Jenny Lake in Grand Teton National Park, swimming across the lake, climbing the Grand Teton and then doing the whole thing in reverse.

Jackson Hole : on a grand scale

This is what helped Halpin overcome mild hypothermia two years ago and complete the course solo after her partner dropped out due to a blackout. When Gonzales leads his tree fighters into the mountains each summer, he notices the same transformation in them that occurred in him in 2009. .
