Naval Diplomacy

The intransigent Japanese stand drove the Americans and the British to unite in defense of the 10:10:6 ratio at the preliminary and main London Naval Conferences called in 1934 and 1935 to review the naval treaties.

Charles O. Paullin

While in command of the Enterprise 1821 , he captured several piratical boats off southern Cuba, and destroyed a pirate rendezvous at Cape Antonio, Cuba. This is probably the closest one can come to the topic of the Barbary Wars and Gunboat Diplomacy before 1912. Only rarely was a navy man placed under direction of a State Department official.

《近代朝鲜的开港》试读：李鸿章的介入

There is a long history of writings existent on the Barbary Wars and other early American conflicts of the age of sail, but most hit only obliquely or separately at the diplomatic elements necessary to describe the likely precedents set in those early years for the later eras of Naval diplomatic practice.
