The Nakasone-initiated education reform programme is the third great education reform in Japan. A follow-up was seen in September 2004 when the Human Security Unit HSU was established in the United Nations Secretariat at the Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs OCHA. Some 300,000 young persons under the age of 18 are currently being exploited as child soldiers around the world.

Cakē Komary

True to the teachings of his mentor, Ikeda concluded that Japan had to abstain from whatever smacked of ambitions in international affairs and leave the United States to handle matters of international security.
