European Commission

The consultative committee is beginning to consider the feasibility of target-sharing measures to overcome this barrier. The EEA Joint Committee shall pursue its efforts to agree on a mutually acceptable solution in order for the suspension to be terminated as soon as possible. If the Joint Committee does not take a decision on an issue which has been referred to it within three months, the Contracting Parties may take appropriate safeguard measures in accordance with Articles 28 and 29 of this Agreement for a period not exceeding six months.

However, employers should expect and prepare themselves for an extensive new scope to litigate and relitigate points that, until now, were considered settled. Enforcement may be suspended only by a decision of the Court of Justice of the European Communities, as far as decisions by the EC Commission, the Court of First Instance of the European Communities or the Court of Justice of the European Communities are concerned, or by a decision of the EFTA Court as far as decisions by the EFTA Surveillance Authority or the EFTA Court are concerned. In total, the EEA EFTA States have the right to participate in several hundred committees.
