On Becoming Filipino

Most fictionists are also novelists.

Bulosan, Carlos [WorldCat Identities]

They were the only places a Filipino could know.

Carlos Bulosan Biography

It was translated into several languages and excerpts were read over wartime radio. Of course a politically committed individual is going to fall in love with another politically committed individual working in the same organization on the same causes.

Philippine Literature during the American Period

On the West Coast, Filipinos were often the target of racial violence. Gonzalez, in an anthology of Asian American critical essays, point to the discrepancies of models for true Filipino American identity as they remark on the recent success of Filipino-American writers like Jessica Hagedorn whose 1990 Dog eaters seems to search for a past and national identity not important to all Filipino writers Cheung 80-83. Some edge wear to boards and dust jacket; three tiny inked lines on bottom edge; several pages are lightly creased; otherwise a solid, clean copy with no marking or underlining; collectable condition; dust jacket is protected by a Brodart sleeve.
