In order to support a motion for summary judgment under Utah law, the party making the motion must demonstrate that there are sufficient undisputed facts to establish that a judgment as a matter of law is appropriate.

Summary of Civil Procedures

Within 14 days after the court's decision, the prevailing party or the party ordered by the court must prepare and serve upon the other parties proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law and order conforming to the court's decision. Estate Planning - Setting up a good estate plan requires more than filling out a free online form or downloading software. Objections to the proposed documents must be filed within 5 days after service.
