'Should ask Jawaharlal Nehru': BJP responds to Rahul's charge of PM ceding Indian territory to China

This thinking was further fueled by the abrasive attitude of the British Imperial order against Indians.

The Nehru That India Cannot Forget

Oxford is part of the PHFI-UKC Wellcome Trust Capacity Building Programme WTP , again in a collaboration with the Public Health Foundation of India. Mountbatten recanted but Nehru and his colleagues were to face a range of challenges in the weeks leading to independence, including, as Brown writes, raging communal violence, provincial choices about joining India or Pakistan, the future of the Indian princes, the division of assets of British India and so on. He acclimatised to prison life and wrote of the friendships and hobbies he developed and the irritations of lacking privacy.

1947 Independence and Partition

If that is done, much of the fury of political conflict in regard to the language question would lessen and may even disappear. The first section 'Culture and Society' reveals Nehru's belief that for future progress, knowledge of our past culture and civilization is essential. Cuckolded by Nehru, if you please.

Book excerpt: Future of English in India from 'The Oxford India Nehru'

Many things helped to bring this about. Dr Nandini Gooptu Dr Gooptu is a specialist in Indian urban development, poverty and politics. Nanda Publisher: Oxford University Press During the twelve years prior to the Partition of India, Jawaharlal Nehru was one of the foremost leaders of the Indian National Congress and wielded considerable influence over the politics of the organization.

Nehru's Foreign Policy: Realism and Idealism Conjoined

We have to acknowledge that any kind of real progress, specially to begin with, can be made only through the mother-tongue, that is, in the regional languages of India. Indian students at Oxford India is Oxford's fifth-largest source of international students. Apart from the obvious reason that English has a historical background in India, it deserves to be nourished.
