Russian

This dictionary is immensely helpful in learning new vocabulary. . If you work your way through from the beginning, it's also quite nice to be able to say you're familiar with, say, the 100, 500, 1000 most frequent words in Russian and so on.

Collocation Examples For English Learners

I need to return it back, and order again, hoping that I will get a new copy this time Finally! This book does exactly what it says it does, however an opportunity was missed that would have made this book so much more useful for solo learners. All items have English translations, many have examples of usage and many include information on stress and grammatical irregularities. Why publish a book digitally if it is not facilitated for the ebook format? This book is eminently practical in that it lists vocabulary that has been culled from many modern sources.
