Heart of Texas Volume 3: An Anthology by Debbie Macomber, Paperback

The following year there was a suspicious number of American visitors and traders in San Antonio, and one of the Urreas was sent with a considerable number of troops to garrison the city. As soon as he departs, Senor Navarre attempts to charm Lucy Dickenson, but she is repulsed by his advances and is saved from being overpowered by Colonel Travis. He helped me with my lessons.

Women who mean business have helped shape the Alamo City

She had been born within its limits, and educated in its convent, and a visit to Mexico and New Orleans had only strengthened her attachment to her own city. As a teen, he won a commission in the Spanish army and might have been expected to live out an unspectacular career as a middle-level army officer. He had been forced to speak of politics and business, and every such word was just so many stolen from far sweeter words—words that fell like music from his lips, and were repeated with infinite power from his eyes.
