The founding and endowment of Huron College was an- other wise and important undertaking which marked Bishop Cronyn's episcopate. Diocesan Synods were organized first in Toronto Diocese in 1857, and in the other Dioceses of Eastern Canada soon after, and have since been formed in all the Dioceses of the Colonial Church throughout the British Empire.

The Bishop was sent just as the Gover- nor-General is sent. No religious body in the world to-day shows more mission- ary zeal, more self-sacrifice, both in men and means, for the sake of Christ s cause, more love of truth and righteous- ness ; in short, more real piety than the Anglican Church. The first Church, built in 1803, was one of primitive simplicity, constructed of wood, and surrounded by the forest, on the site whereon now stands St.
