L'Oryctologie

This is NOT a retyped or an ocr'd reprint. As a reproduction of a historical artifact, this work may contain missing or blurred pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. Antoine-Joseph Dezallier d'Argenville 1680-1765 advocate to the Parlement de Paris and secretary to the king, was a natural history writer with a keen interest in conchology and related sciences notably palaeontology and mineralogy, on which he wrote several treatises including the present work.

Les lettres d'Antoine

NO changes have been made to the original text. Besides well-known persons, like Palissy, Steno, Woodward, Buffon, Hutton, Lyell and others, there were a number of humble scholars, whose contributions remained unpublished and unknown.
