10 of the Most Famous Christmas Poems and Hymns

Candy Cane Friendship Wreath Poem It's the time of year to show friends that we care, So I put up this candy cane wreath that I'd like to share. It's unusual, however to rhyme every verse of a Christmas poem, as this Christmas card poem does. Christmas Eve CHRISTMAS hath darkness Brighter than the blazing noon, Christmas hath a chillness Warmer than the heat of June, Christmas hath a beauty Lovelier than the world can show: For Christmas bringeth Jesus, Brought for us so low.

Famous Christmas Poems

The good you do for others is good you do yourself. It's my favorite Christmas poetry. So it was forever, After the night When the little maiden Mary Wore blue and white.

10 Festive Christmas Poems To Get You Ready For The Holidays

Lets keep our tree ablaze with light, With testimonies burning bright. The coming of Incarnate God to all people, especially to those of us who are Gentiles, is the bridge from birth into life, the event that makes Easter possible for most of us. Christmas Fulfillment This Christmas, may you have the fulfillment of seeing around you the people you love the most.

Wreath Of Christmas Legends by Phyllis McGinley

I believe in the angel's message that we should not be afraid—that the Child of Bethlehem is able to overcome all anxieties and insecurities.

10 Festive Christmas Poems To Get You Ready For The Holidays

He spoke but I barely heard him, my body was shaking with fright! In general, the tree is decorated and Christmas gifts are placed under it. The big stuffed bear leaped to his feet, To see what he could see; He rode a shiny, bright red bike Around the Christmas tree. And now before you go, Just cram her stocking with goodies, From the top clean down to the toe! This will increase its value a hundred fold, and the one who receives it shall treasure it forever.
