You have heard of Tiffany but how about Durand Or Quezal? That said, with power invested in me by the Internet, I have created a separate post for these works. Intellectually they taking the same path but visually there is little chemistry.

Martin Smith: The Minimalist Master Levitates Volume

Known for their birds and streamlined palette, Martinware is among the most celebrated pottery to emerge from the late 19th and early 20th centuries.

Martin Smith: The Minimalist Master Levitates Volume

Martin Smith is a major figure in 21st-century ceramics. The four Martin brothers, Walter, Robert, Edwin and Charles, began producing their wares in 1873 with a kiln at the family home in Fulham. Mariot Arbuthnot 1711-1794 was a British admiral who commanded the Royal Navys North American station during the American War for Independence.
