Why Are the Books of the Bible Placed in a Particular Order or Sequence? by Don Stewart

I read the Bible, not as revelation nor as history, although I suppose that there is some history there. The introductory chapters only touched on this subject if they addressed it at all and I gave up a few chapters in because the book didn't seem to be helping me answer the questions that I had.

Old Testament Overview

Understanding the Good Samaritan Parable

I would recommend this book to anyone looking to find purpose in their daily life.

Parallel Concepts between the U.S. Constitution & the Bible

Ten Commandments

Understanding Scripture: An Overview of the Bible's Origin, Reliability, and Meaning.

Reading Between the Lines: A Christian Guide to Literature

Almost the whole range of biblical narrative. Purpose of Writing: The message of the Book of Numbers is universal and timeless.

Jeremiah 31:31

Os Guinness attempts what so many others have in urging us to identify God's call on our lives.
