Indeed, it is this notion of narrative that is at the heart of a project between Israeli and Palestinian peace advocates, presented in the 2006 work edited by Robert I. Due to their importance to the general context at hand, the chapter also covers military operations that led to the 2009 and 2014 Palestinian ad hoc declarations as well as some of the peace negotiations held between the two parties. The reader is invited to consult Firestone, who identifies the various renditions throughout this passage.
