Leeds campaigners urge council not to build on playing fields

Choosing to support the local Roundhay community is easy as a high proportion of the businesses in Roundhay are independent. Moortown became a separate ward in 1950 when the City Council revised boundaries.

North Leeds Childrens Centres

During the 1950s and 1960s about 100,000 people a year visited the Roundhay 'swimming baths'. Provide a first class legal service and prioritise. The obvious connector is Sheepscar Junction.

Leeds City Council is looking at two new options for delivering housing management services, one being a move to a single company model, such as one ALMO, and the other being to transfer all services to be integrated within the council. When selecting an Activity setting, select the speed you would normally travel at on flat ground.

Please tell us in your own words: Although we're unable to respond to you personally, we'll use your feedback to help us deliver a better website service for you. Education Leeds also accepted the need for a community use agreement as part of the planning condition attached to the planning decision for the BSF School. Authorised and regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority SRA SRA ID 807074.
