Guided and self-guided tours A variety of tours are available including options for families, tourists and school groups. It was built in the early years of the 20th century in the time of Sheikh Zayed bin Khalifa the First by his son Sheikh Khalifa bin Zayed bin Khalifa.

Qasr Al Muwaiji

The cost of the breakfast buffēt at Assaha is Kd 5, and this included all the fruit juices loved the orange juice , hot drinks and even water. Lebanese cuisine is counted as a Mediterranean cuisine that is a hybrid of local, Ottoman, the areas of Palestine, Lebanon, Jordan and Syria, Persian and other cuisines from cultures that influenced the area through the centuries.

Qasr Al Muwaiji

Its base ingredients include olive oil, garlic, onions, lots of greens, veggies and grains and of course a variety of seafood and meats! The food of the Middle East is, like the region itself, a complex network of interweaving cultures. For the accompanying dessert to wrap up our meal the station had a minimal choice of fresh fruits, um ali which was a tad bit sweet, honey drenched pastries, caramel, puddings and cheesecake.

Assaha Kuwait Review

Assaha is the prodigy of the Assaha International group AIP and carries with it the real scent and taste of a traditional Lebanese village. Like all Lebanese restaurants, they kept serving hot fresh bread.

Qasr Al Muwaiji

Advanced bookings are required for schools and groups larger than 10. Audio guides are also available until one-hour before closing time at the reception desk. For those like us who have never been to Lebanon and living in this era, a stroll through this huge restaurant that hold enough seats to house a conservative marriage party, can take us on an imaginative trip to Lebanon set in an earlier period.

. Lebanese cuisine is known and loved for its wonderfully rustic, simple ingredients and robust flavors. It is the story of authentic Lebanese cuisine presented in a unique concept and setting.

Assaha Kuwait Review

Four varieties of eggs were freshly prepared and served. Qasr al Muwaiji is an impressive structure that has watched over the oasis for around 100 years.

Qasr Al Muwaiji

You can read the same menu — of tabbouleh and fattoush and hummus — from one country to the next, but in each it is subtly, sometimes vastly, different.
