Educational Leadership and Management Course MSc/PgDip/PgCert

If you're not already working in education, please take a look at our MA Education Studies course. Learning is analysed from a psychological perspective, drawing particularly from the fields of cognitive psychology and neuroscience. But, as a result, I'm more aware of how to engage young people in learning now.

MSc Education Leadership and Management

The PgCert takes 6 months full-time and 1 year part-time. So completely is it subject to the law of exchange that it is no longer exchanged; it is so blindly consumed in use that it can no longer be used.
