If you find an error in the database please. His memorial tablet and portrait were enshrined there in the historically-second position after Scholar Seol Cheong son of, out of Korea's 18 most-honored Confucianists. Choi Chi-won continues to symbolically personify the noblest levels of Korean spirit, in a striking combination of Confucianism, Daoism, Buddhism and nationalist patriotism.

Cho Yong

His father reportedly strictly admonished him to diligently excel in his studies so as to become the pride of his nation and family-lineage, threatening to disown him if he did not. In the two subsequent dynasties, Choi Chi-won was honored as highly as a non-royal citizen could be.
