A Billings Historic Tour

The and area businesses suffered major damage. The tour begins in the basement of the home with a short video and then you are led on a guided tour of the home. In addition to the other shopping centers, two new malls were developed, and Rimrock Mall was redeveloped and enlarged, on what was then the city's west end.

National of Historic Places listings in Yellowstone County, Montana

Though it stood on the banks of the Yellowstone River only a couple of miles from the heart of present-day downtown Billings, the city of Billings never built on the land where Coulson once stood.

Historic Preservation

The YBC also plans to open a nondenominational branch called the Yellowstone Bible Institute in early 2013. Summer hours June — August TBD.

Historic Preservation

At first the new town had only three buildings but within just a few months it had grown to over 2,000. Billings: The Magic City and How It Grew Billings: K. Today Coulson Park, a Billings city park, sits on the river bank where Coulson once was.

Historic Home on pretty grounds

The town was started when John Alderson built a sawmill and convinced PW McAdow to open a general store and trading post on land Alderson owned on the bank of the Yellowstone River. Cobb Field was demolished in 2007 and construction of Dehler Park began at the end of the 2007 baseball season.
