

Platteland - images from rural South Africa

St. Martins Press - Roger Ballen

Description: -

-

South Africa -- Rural conditions -- Pictorial works

Rural poor -- South Africa -- Pictorial works Platteland - images from rural South Africa

-Platteland - images from rural South Africa

Notes: Originally published: Rivonia, South Africa : William

Waterman ; London : Quartet, 1994.

This edition was published in 1996

Filesize: 42.84 MB

Tags: #Demented #Innocence

Van buiten naar binnen

The Fox Sisters were from New York. Your images featured in Platteland have caused some amount of controversy for their use of what gets mandated as voyeurism by the lamentable by the intellectual community.

texte

One that can never be repeated.

Roger Ballen: The Theatre of Apparitions

I tend not to look at darkness as despair and light as happiness.

Demented Innocence

He was found by Bushmen at the bottom of an old mineshaft, dead. Some pages creased from being paged through.

Roger Ballen: Ballenesque Interview

He gave me muti, a green powder to mix with milk.

Roger Ballen: Ballenesque Interview

I have learnt where there are no shops in the native locations. Above all else, most are severely alienated by the radical changes taking place in the society around them.

Related Books

- Enfant et la morale.
- Statistiske metoder.
- Yŏkchu Paekho chŏnjip
- The three little pigs
- Decision making in spinal care