The author Gail Holst, an Australian musician and writer who first came to Greece in 1965 and who has continued to perform and write about Greek music ever since, describes her own initiation into the rembetika, outlines its historical and sociological background, its musical characteristics and instrumentation. As can riots, uprisings and insurrection erupting throughout the land. Sotiria Bellou and Marika Ninou There are many Sotiria Bellou albums and she is perhaps the most famous and recognized voice of all Rembetika singers male or female, but I have the opinion that her earliest stuff is the best when her voice has a much softer quality than the Bellou most people are familiar with.
