Grief Etiquette? Don't Say This to Anyone Grieving

I bought it hook, line and sinker: who doesn't want to believe a mother who has always hated you and now wants to love you and be close to you? Now I feel the best part of me has died with him and I have very dark thoughts indeed. But honestly, I think the experiences are ultimately helping me grow. I always left feeling bad about myself because of the looks I would get, the eye rolling, being talked over, etc.

JACK: Well, I am afraid I really have none.

Grief Makes You Crazy

Go to the light and make your life happy it is a gift from God! She previously fell in the Garden and fractured her hip.

I make friends easily too...but, like many of you have mentioned, it is painful to feel excluded from your blood family and not take it personally! I am glad your younger child is away from the abuser and feel bad for the oldest girl. By the next Wednesday they were measuring brainwaves. She would be the type to even turn my children against me.
