Saltaire, World Heritage Site

Saltaire Boys in Trouble At Bingley on Wednesday Robert Loffhouse, labourer, Shipley and Albert Hill, William James Gough 14 , Walter Richard Paxton 13 and Benjamin Thompson 12 , all mill hands of Saltaire were charged with stealing an overcoat, a hammer, and various brass and copper fittings valued at £11, the property of John Robinson Turner of Warren Park Farm at Gilstead. Why not give this site a try? With them they brought, often by accident, the seeds of various plants and herbs hitherto unknown in England, just as in the same way many kinds of weeds and wayside flowers were introduced into France by the invading armies of Germany during the great war of 1870-71. John Holt s Ten-part peal of 5040 Grandsire Triples in 3 hrs.

Chronicles and stories of old Bingley

The Author has been favoured with a copy of that paper, by Miss Crosland, of Clare Hill, Huddersfield ; from which it would appear, that after the enlargement of the Parish Church, about 1522, by the erection of the spacious Nave, that Chapel, built by their ancestors, being no longer required, was taken down with the consent of the Parish, by Arthur Kaye, Esq. As a result there are soldiers listed here who are commemorated in several places. King's, grandfather, who lived to an advanced age, had travelled the whole distance from Luddenden to Ilkley by this old Roman road.

Saltaire, World Heritage Site

I have experience of evangelism with various organisations: Church of England, Methodist, Baptist, Elim, Assemblies of God British and American , URC, Salvation Army, Brethren, YMCA, Quakers, Scripture Union, ISCF, SASRA, UCCF, Beach Missions, National Young Life Campaign, Youth for Christ, Open Air Mission, Pilgrim Preachers, Operation Mobilization, Youth With A Mission, to name most. Previous to which a touch of call changes was performed, four of the members of St. There are stories of these institutions be managed by boards of zealots who sought to apply this principle at the extreme.

At the time of the Dissolution of Religious Houses, this chapel became the property of the Dukes of Suffolk, who subsequently sold it to the Goodrickes, one William Thyckpenny being tenant at the time, though for what purpose he made use of it is not clear. In the opinion of many present at the concert it was a long time since such a musical treat was heard in Shipley. They got in a car and his older brother drove him to Ashby De La Zouse where he was living with his first wife Pat.

Then there are the curious arums and orchids of our woods, which are said to be descendants of old tropical forms.

About

The illustration prefacing the first chapter shows the main features of the strata, with the till in the gully ; the latter has no commercial value, and is now being removed.
