Euthanasia Arguments

Or do we treasure them as His sheep to be cared for in all kinds of circumstances? This is not about individuals who are terminally ill being maintained endlessly on a life-support apparatus, or about individuals with incurable illnesses being brought back from the brink of death, only to face death again in a few hours. Importance of What the Bible Says about Euthanasia At the time of this writing, there was a case being brought before the courts in the USA in regard to a woman named Terri Schiavo, who just four days ago had a feeding tube removed by a court order. Death is an enemy 1 Corinthians 15:26.

Views on Euthanasia

God would not want that to happen to me; he thinks more of me than that. We suffer for Christ by staying in a hard place, rather than fleeing, in hopes that redemption might come to those that misunderstand us. To them, stock theological answers will ring hollow.

Euthanasia: A Christian Perspective

Thirdly, because life is God's gift to man, and is subject to His power, Who kills and makes to live.

What does the Bible say about animal/pet euthanasia?

Which means if something is an impediment to the natural process of death and the patient only survives because of it, he is permitted to withdraw that thing if the family agrees. There is one final point that should be made. As well, here is a unique opportunity for believers.

Views on Euthanasia

Or, second, I could choose to die at eighty-plus-a-few-days of an affliction so painful that for those few days before death I would be reduced to howling like a dog, with my family standing helplessly by. God has left you to make your own choices and has been very patient with you. But to deliberately violate His command expecting or assuming He will forgive is very risky business.
