1960 Democratic Party Platform

Others are denied enrollment because schools have no room for them, or in some cases, do not have adequate inclusive education systems in place to cater to children with disabilities or those experiencing learning barriers. This is of vital concern to the laborer, the housewife, the farmer and the small businessman, as well as the millions of Americans dependent upon their weekly or monthly income for sustenance. No employer shall have the right to require employees to work overtime.
