Anno. xxix. E. tercii. De termino Hillarii anno regni Regis Edwardi tercii post conquestum vicesimo nono

In these petitions, it does not appear that suitors regard him as more than an executive officer and their most feasible means of approach to the council. He specifically notes the agreement in 1318 that the king would do nothing without assent in common parliament, and he clearly regrets that parliaments and colloquies were impotent in 1325.

Angliam pro veneratione martyris supradicti. Redemptus est autem a by the. The author discusses the negotiations in considerable detail, and unlike any other chronicler shows his intimate knowledge of central politics by noting all the abortive parliaments of the year.

Henry VI: July 1433

But there are some indications that a second and doubtless more important chartulary was prepared at Kirkstall at a later date, and that it was in existence at a comparatively recent period. Then also we are told a little about some important events in national history, the memorahst becoming for the time almost a chronicler.

I have an old account of the monuments, taken before the Rebellion, which says, that John Barret, D. The nave representing, as they said, the church militant, and the chancel, the church triumphant, those therefore that would pass out of the former into the latter, must go under the rood-loft, that is, must go under the cross and suffer affliction. Multi insiste- bant quod Henricus expelleretur, et Robertus coronaretur.
