Layer 1 top is land surface; layer 8 bottom is the underlying bedrock. Compliance with all the elements in this policy, and underlying policies, is incumbent on all managers, authors, and publishing groups within the bureau, as a fundamental part of the publishing process as set forth in the USGS Survey Manual Part 1100. The series contains manuals that describe approved procedures for planning and executing field and laboratory studies in scientific investigations, including collecting, analyzing, and processing hydrologic data.
