In an effort to curb these abuses, but mostly to please Washington, a tremendous shakeup in the security forces was announced on November 26. The Members of Parliament asked questions on the Government's policies regarding security matters and demanded explanations on the absence of an armed reaction to help the population of Bentalha, Raïs or Sidi Hamed. Although the meta-theory does not dictate which of these procedural devices should be used, it does provide a new standard with which to evaluate them.

NewspaperSG

This attempt was often criticised by the majority of the private press. On arrival, each reporter or television team is taken by a team of plain cloths police or by the gendarmerie. All were on the right side of the political spectrum.

Airports face closure threats

Cardoza told El Faro that Merino Reyes had provided him with that helicopter. A vast police hunt was unleashed in Versailles near here early today for an alleged double killer accused of snooting a poiceman yesterday afternoon. The remainder of 1982 saw the left in El Salvador growing stronger while Secretary of State Haig and President Reagan repeatedly charged that their arms were being supplied by Cuba, mainly through Nicaragua.

El Salvador After 1979: Forces In The Conflict

A beachside cottage hotel complex on the resort island of Bali was destroyed when fire swept through 89 thatched cottages, police reported today. Their articles express a clear demand for modernity, freedom of commercial enterprise, freedom of expression and political freedom. News

~~~~~ EL DORADO ~~~~~

Since the junta had publicly proclaimed its support for ending violence and corruption, dissolving ORDEN, respecting human rights, and improving the economy, it was generally accepted by the international community as a positive step toward reform and stability. Agenda for the Central American Left
The agenda of reforms for which the Central American Left must fight is so long that it would be idle and sterile to end these reflections with a list that in any case must stem from the analysis of particular realities. The junta was caught completely by surprise by the broad popular support for the FDR.
