counter revolution of 1776

At the end of this annus horribilis—in which a strange Chinese virus has ravaged the globe, public worship has been suspended in countless jurisdictions, and two people who will wage war on our faith and values have claimed victory in a disputed election—there is little indication that we will be better off when the calendar changes over. Cathelineau, unlike the armchair revolutionaries whose regime he opposed so fiercely, fought on the front lines with his troops.
