I was wondering, your other pictures on the OT do not seem available yet on the Foundations Matters website. Fighting this way, called Florintine one must be standing on the toes of their opponit, and try to do damage with both swords.

9 Ancient Egyptian Weapons and Tools That Powered the Pharaoh's Army

A smug, ignorant, especially middle-class person who is regarded as being indifferent or antagonistic to artistic and cultural values. Goliath was arrogant and boastful, full of pride, and he trusted too much in his armor. This humorous story was created with the intention of helping young children to understand that life is magic.

The Bible illustration blog: David and Goliath, and Philistine Armor

No verse said that Goliath sat down to rest, but as I recall the Illiad, this was the usual thing to do when you have out an open challenge, so use your reason: Nobody can be ready and on the alert, and fully dressed for battle in all forty days, from early morning til late evening in that devastating heat they have in Israel. That is a man of no honour, and that counts for David too. The illustrations are bright, lively, and complement the story completely.
