Growing numbers of peasants ran away from their pomeshchiki in the 15th and 16th centuries. Various handicrafts developed in the cities, including founding, metalworking, and smithery. Notable cathedrals and palaces built in the Galician-Volynian Principality in the 12th and first half of the 13th centuries included the Uspenskii Cathedral in Vladimir-Volynskii 12th century and the palace in Galich 12th century.

Reforma constitucional argentina de 1860

In the 11th and 12th centuries the Armenian aristocracy, taking advantage of the decline of the Seljuk state, led a liberation movement of the popular masses. Valla knew Greek and Latin well and was chosen by Pope Nicholas V to translate Herodotus and Thucydides into Latin. Only scant knowledge of his life can be gleaned from his writings and from references to him by later writings, notably the Suda.

Went down in history

This is the way the techniques for reform began to come into existence.
