The Meaning of Monument

Petroglyph National Monument in Albuquerque boasts more than 25,000 images—mostly humans, animals and tribal symbols—carved into volcanic rocks by Native Americans and Spanish settlers 400 to 700 years ago, and another obvious site, Canyonlands National Park in southeastern Utah, is famously known for life-size human figures and depictions of men fighting, painted between 900 and 2,000 years ago. .

Where to See Petroglyphs on Trails in Phoenix

One of the mounds even has a small dugout that miners may have lived in. To avoid driving onto the dry lake, you may have to follow a more improved road that leads off to the right just before the second viewing area.
