GUNN'S NEW FAMILY PHYSICIAN, or Home Book Of Health

We have now over fifty thousand plants to offer. To the people of Massachusetts it would sound ridiculous nonsense! Ling and Heaths are sun-loving plants and their successful culture demands that they be planted in open situations fully exposed to the sun. It is learned from the town books that considerable portions of the old wall were not gone till past the middle of last century.

Poor, benighted souls; did anyone dream for a moment that a surgeon's field had aught of glory about it? After his decease, his papers would have been consigned to destruction, but for the patriotic and literary zeal of Sir John Scott of Scottstarvit, who prevailed on Sir Robert Gordon of Straloch to revise and correct the surveys left by Pont ; and on the death of Sir Robert, the work of revision was continued by his son. The exhibition was exceptionally fine.
