Even Winston Churchill saw the West Wall as being an economy-of-force ploy to free up large numbers of soldiers that could be used in more offensive operations. Mizuno, his command staff, engineering squad, and elements of the 1st Company, soaked, muddy, and sporting welts from ferocious mosquito attacks, soon reached the east bank of the Tenaru River. Additionally, it provides leaders with important data on several subgroups that may be proactively identified for resourcing.

World War II

Hunt called for flares to be sent up, illuminating the battlefield in a starburst of light.

World War II Photos

Looking over the bodies of the Japs who had been killed about thirty , we found some interesting items: pictures of Javanese women, American ammunition with labels printed in Dutch. A tense period of silence followed. Its soldiers displayed no shortage of heroism in the battle for della Torracchia: five were awarded Silver Stars for their actions, one posthumously.
