LABORERS IN THE VINEYARD (Mt 20:1

This is the message of the , which teaches about the dangers of greed and the importance of being rich toward God. In this painting, a landowner is paying his workers at the end of the day.

The Parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard

Over 100 homes have been destroyed, as well as hotels and businesses. I am making several assumptions—that I am deserving, that other people are not deserving, and that God operates according to my standards of fairness and justice.

Lessons From The Parable Of The Vineyard Workers

When the landowner comes, John is taken in the first wave of workers, and as he labors in the field he looks up the lane for some sign of Philip. And what shall we do with this portrait of a God who chooses to treat all people as their patron? I wish to pay the others the same - Mt 20:14b 1 Do I have not the right? The good news had been preached so hard that those Jews who opposed this new message from God said this.

The Laborers in the Vineyard (Matthew 20:1

To further show this lets look at. Our next parable identifies another attitude of heart that has no place in the kingdom.

Matthew 20 NASB1995

Did you not agree with me for a denarius? The story includes a master, his vineyard, and some workers.
