DARTMOOR INN, Moorside, Lydford, Devon, EX20 4AY

We tucked into goose leg confit with cassoulet and slow-cooked beef goulash, plus hearty desserts, for less than £20 per head. Car Parking at the Two Bridges Hotel Hotel Guests and Customers — free of charge.

The Old Inn

For your homeward leg, retrace your steps and shadow the old dry-stone wall back towards the car park. The exposed granite Tor punctuates the surrounding landscape and is a great place to scramble. Remember that the weather can change very quickly on Dartmoor, so you should wear plenty of layers and stout shoes or walking boots.

Walk Dartmoor

Contents include an introduction to each walk, details of distance and terrain, how to get to the start, recommended pub, food served and telephone number, numbered route directions, matching numbered route maps and details of places of interest nearby. Pub Stop: is an award-winning, family-run pub in the heart of Bovey Tracey. Fascinating Fact: During the English Civil War, Oliver Cromwell famously led a daring raid on Bovey Tracey, under the cover of darkness, to capture a cohort of Royalist officers who were playing cards in a local inn.

Dartmoor walks to download and print FREE!

On clear days, you can look out from Haytor and see out all the way to the sea at Teignmouth and Torquay! The total length of the walk is about 4.

Circular Walks on Dartmoor

The New Inn circular pub walks — the opportunity to stretch your legs and reward yourself with some top-notch food and drink Whilst every effort has been made to ensure that the walks are clear and accurate such that you should not lose your way, we would always recommend that you carry with you a map hardcopy or digital as a contingency. Or you can go eastwards through the newly acquired woodlands, going uphill first to visit the Iron Age hillfort, Wooston Castle, and then return along the river.

Circular Walks on Dartmoor

The Plume of Feathers was constructed in 1785 and is thought to be the oldest substantial structure in Princetown constructed by Charles Tyrwhitt of Tor Royal at the time he was founding the settlement.
