The Cambridge Companion to Reformation Theology

I believe we are wrong.

Truly Worthy and Well Prepared:

During these oft-repeated incursions and the horrible pillage that generally accompanied warfare, many most valuable libraries and thousands of MSS. I say have you read them recently? It appears, however, that the most monstrous of these were read by the Bishop of Deventer to the Council, and excited the greatest horror.

This ubiquity confounds the natures of Christ. They weren't printed in the BCP until 1571.

A History of the So

St Peter, St Paul, and the rest went forth to various lands, preaching the Gospel, and made thousands of converts, and in each place founded a church, and left priests in charge, and a bishop sometimes as e.
