The dust jacket has minor rubbing to the covers with light wear at the edges and corners, otherwise in great condition. In this engaging study, Phoebe S. When this melodramatic tale of forbidden romance and tragic loss appeared in 1884, it introduced countless readers to a seemingly bygone era in California history.

By concentrating on debates that shaped the form and meaning of the Spanish past, Kropp makes important contributions to the study of historical memory.

Review of California Vieja: Culture and Memory in a Modern American Place

The Panama-California Exposition of 1915 marked a new and monumental stage in boosters' use of the past. Bottom rear edge of dust jacket slightly wrinkled, else fine. Tan cloth with blue lettering on spine.
