Works on display are almost exclusively from the Henry Moore Foundation at Much Hadham. The specialist contractor appointed me to record the restoration work which included stone repair works, drilling and trial assembly in their yard in Dartford as well as the final assembly work in Kensington Gardens.

HENRY MOORE 80TH BIRTHDAY EXHIBITION POSTER

Melville's short foreword comments on Snake, 1924 marble, the Leeds Reclining Figure, 1929 brown Hornton stone, and the influence of Mexican sculpture. In my opinion the artists that have been most original and have contributed most have also owed most to the past.
