SEARCH IN SECRET EGYPT Paul Brunton 1st/1st 1936 HC/DJ, Illustrated Eg

I won this book in a goodreads drawing. He was the most popular and authoritative source of information on Eastern philosophies, gurus, and meditation systems from the mid-'30s to the '60s. His exposition, too on the connecting link between the Atlantean and Egyptian civilizations is fascinating in the extreme, so that his pleasantly written and beautifully illustrated volume contains something for every taste.

One cannot really help admiring his zeal for daring enterprise, his totally unbiased and critical mind.

This book by Paul Brunton caught my attention when I read that he spent a night alone inside the Great Pyramid. Từng kim tự tháp, con Sphinx, dòng sông Nile, lăng tẩm cột tháp vĩ đại. His stories about meditating in pyramids are mindblowing and head opening, highly recommend this scientificaly written book.

If you want to learn something solid about the Sphinx and the Great Pyramid, read Robert M. He meets a variety of magicians, wizards, fakirs, and the ike, and even goes on a hajj. It's difficult to tag a label onto Paul Brunton, he's kind of an anythingarian in the spiritual field.
