William Shakespeare, Shakespeares Julius Caesar

Words before blows: is it so, countrymen? The last of all the Romans, fare thee well! Well, to our work alive.

Speech: "Friends, Romans, countrymen, lend me..."

Tear him to pieces; he's a conspirator. Run, Lucius, and commend me to my lord; Say I am merry: come to me again, And bring me word what he doth say to thee.

10 Most Famous Quotations From Shakespeare's Julius Caesar

Who is it in the press that calls on me? If thou read this, O Caesar, thou mayst live; If not, the Fates with traitors do contrive. Would you were not sick! I have been up this hour, awake all night.

Famous Quotations from Shakespeare's Julius Caesar

O Cicero, 425 I have seen tempests, when the scolding winds Have rived the knotty oaks, and I have seen The ambitious ocean swell and rage and foam, To be exalted with the threatening clouds; But never till to-night, never till now, 430 Did I go through a tempest dropping fire. But here's a parchment with the seal of Caesar; I found it in his closet, 'tis his will: Let but the commons hear this testament— 1675 Which, pardon me, I do not mean to read— And they would go and kiss dead Caesar's wounds And dip their napkins in his sacred blood, Yea, beg a hair of him for memory, And, dying, mention it within their wills, 1680 Bequeathing it as a rich legacy Unto their issue. Decius, go tell them Caesar will not come.

Julius Caesar Quotes by William Shakespeare

Brutus's pride and political naivety have led to his destruction, but his ideals are etched into the memory of his enemies.

Julius Caesar

All my engagements I will construe to thee, All the character of my sad brows: Leave me with haste. Here, quite confounded with this mutiny. Yet Brutus says he was ambitious; And, sure, he is an honourable man.
