. The IRB began the preparations for the open organisation of the Irish Volunteers in January 1913. There were several meetings between the two sides with MacNeill eventually discovering that a rebellion was being planned without his approval.

Emblems and Badges of the Irish Volunteers

The Ulster Unionist Party was formed in 1886. As I was told at the time, he got out of the train in which he was travelling at Strabane and proceeded to Derry by car arriving at the Metropole Hotel in Foyle Street, where he awaited the arrival of Seamus Cavanagh, the O.

Irish Volunteers (18th century)

Sir John French who was travelling in the first car had a narrow escape — the I.
