Chinese Education and Society, 40 4 , 76—96. Young children learning: Talking and thinking at home and school. Further research is required to replicate these findings over a longer duration, and to relate the present findings to attainment outcomes.

Gifts of Time and Space: Co

However, because the organisation had a strong focus on outdoor learning already, it found that procedures did not need to change too significantly.

Creating an innovative curriculum using the expressive arts

The paper reports on ways in which one community school invited, encouraged and supported children as co-educators through projects that promoted collaborative leadership and unfolded, rather than being delivered through planned and scripted lessons.

BA Primary Education

It focuses on radio and video production, traditional and online publications, music production and digital inclusion. The seventy-hour first year placement allows you to work with children 0 — 14 years in a setting out-with a mainstream primary classroom. It has since lost this community school designation and title.

BA Primary Education

This class will encourage you to self-regulate your learning. Inclusive education—working towards the realizing of human rights.

Face to face expressive arts in Scotland during Covid
